

I support Steve Carter in his efforts to defeat the weakening of the Telephone Privacy Act. Allowing these companies to call unrestricted will negate the intent of the original act.